VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

See the great leap at the Arcade-Airdome Wednesday.

The band will play at the Airdome every Tuesday night.

The senatorial party will be in town next Friday, a large crowd is expected from the county.

In the county campaign schedule as published Friday Fairview, Friday, August 14, was accidentally omitted.

P. C. Jeans & Co., of Newberry, has been commissioned, with a capital of $500. The petitioners are P. C. Jeans and Benjamin Barksdale.

There was one sale Monday by the master, one half acre eastern suburbs of town, bought by I. T. Timmerman for $320.

Some people will never become accustomed to the terrifically shrieking fire whistle as it splits the air and pierces the ear.

The secretary of the St. Luke's Democratic club will be at St. Luke's school house Saturday, July 11, to enrol all members of the club that are present from 4 to 6 o'clock.

According to an exchange a Georgia drummer says Satan has Cole. Please under a large pot below and is afraid to turn it over for fear he will pardon everybody down there.

The firemen never know what may be in store for them when the alarm calls to action.—Spartanburg Herald. The Newberry firemen never stop to think of any possible or probable danger.

A reception will be given by the Woman's and Men's Business League of the First Baptist church to all of the members and congregation of the church Wednesday evening on the church lawn. All are expected.

If the R. F. D. men like Spartanburg as well as Spartanburg likes them, then Spartanburg ought to feel highly complimented.—Spartanburg Herald. The Herald and News thanks you in behalf of the Newberry delegation.

The Columbia people have been told by Rev. Richard Carroll that while in Newberry last week he was promised $100 by Mr. H. L. Parr and that Thomas A. Williams heads the movement to raise $1,000 in this county for the colored hospital to be built in Columbia.

Henry Leung, a Chinaman, and Dora Rice, a colored woman, were married Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. H. McGill, a colored preacher, performing the ceremony. Immediately thereafter Henry Leung and his bride left for their home in Spartanburg.—Union Times, 3rd.

The fire Sunday night about 10 o'clock was confined to a burning oil lamp in Taylor's barber shop, between the jewelry store of T. M. Rogers and M. Q. Chappell's grocery store. The lamp had been left burning and the oil ignited. It was put out before any further damage resulted.

During the storm last Thursday the lightning struck the farm of Lewis Duckett in No. 4 township, firing and destroying the building, killing two mules and burning several others. Lewis Duckett is a worthy colored man and there is sympathy for him in his loss.

Beautiful Ponderosa tomatoes came from the garden of Mrs. C. E. Dominick, the largest weighing one pound and a quarter. Mrs. Dominick had large ones last year, which was a better year for the tomato. Some Newberry soil is fine for this popular and wholesome vegetable.

There was an error in the date for the barbecue at Pomaria campaign day. It was printed July 11. Should be August 11. Corrected ad. appears in this issue. Be governed accordingly. Mr. Caldwell Ruff is preparing to give one of the cues of the season. Don't get the dates mixed. The cue is August 11.

The Orangeburg reunion of students and ex-students of Newberry college will be held Friday, July 17, at Cameron, in the park by Dr. Summers, flowing well. There will be an overflow of water and of good things to eat, and also of really good speaking. Let's all get together for an overflow of the "Newberry spirit".—Lutheran Church Visitor, 2nd.

The regular day for the presentation of that beautiful "Mutual Girl" at the Arcade-Airdome has been changed from Saturday to Monday, but the day for that beautiful Pauline and her thrilling perils remains the same—Friday. There is a good number for next Friday. Those who are failing to see these and other pictures don't know what they are missing. Moving pictures are fascinating and enchanting, else why do so many people continue to see them?

Wall-Watson.

The following announcement will be interesting to many Newberrians:

Mr. and Mrs. William Aiken Wall announce the marriage of their daughter

Mary Evelyn

to

Mr. Frank E. Watson

on Tuesday, June the thirtieth nineteen hundred and fourteen

Marion, South Carolina.

Welcomed in Union.

Union Times, 3rd.

Mr. Chas. F. Hart, the efficient desk clerk for the city council, left Tuesday for Newberry where he and Miss Essie Pearson were united in marriage. Mr. Hart was accompanied to Newberry by Chief of Police M. H. Evans and several friends in an automobile party. After the marriage the bride and groom drove through to Union and Mr. and Mrs. Hart gave a supper to their friends.

The best wishes for long life and great happiness are expressed to the bride and groom.

THE NEWS OF PROSPERITY.

The Comings and Going of Many People in Our Sister City of Prosperity.

Special to The Herald and News.

Prosperity, July 6.—Mrs. G. W. Harmon and Miss Pansy Wallace have gone to the Isle of Palms for a week's stay.

Mrs. May Lee Chase, of Columbia, spent Saturday here en route to Greenwood.

Mrs. Lizzie DeWalt and Miss Mira Hunter have gone to Wailhalla to spend the summer.

Miss Kate Barre spent the week-end in Greenwood with her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Baker.

Miss Willie Mae Wise will reach home Tuesday from Winthrop summer school.

Prof. J. M. Bedenbaugh spent the week-end at home returning Monday to Columbia to attend the summer school.

Misses Marjorie and Julia Luther, of Columbia, are visiting their grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Luther.

Miss Eula Taylor is spending a few days in Columbia.

Mrs. Chapman and Miss Chapman, of Chapin, are visiting Mrs. Joan Sease.

Miss Isoline Wyche spent Friday in Augusta.

Dr. and Mrs. P. D. Simpson, of Cowpens, are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Boland and children, of Clinton, are visiting Mr. J. B. T. Scott.

Miss Rebe Langford, of Spartanburg, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Langford.

Mr. E. S. Kohn, of Columbia, spent Sunday with Mr. S. J. Kohn.

Mrs. W. A. Moseley has returned from Clinton, where she was called on account of the illness of Mrs. H. C. Moseley.

A Monument to Four Generations.

At the marble works of P. F. Baxter and Son we last week saw a monument to the memory of four generations of a family dating back to 1760 and coming down to 1914. The first generation embraced Christian Ruff and wife Barbara Yost Ruff, the second John Ruff and wife Frances Haynie Ruff, the third William Haynie Ruff, son of John Ruff and wife, Jeanette Amanda Sims Ruff, and the fourth generation the children of Wm. Ruff down to Moorman Ruff who died last year. The monument is erected by Mrs. Carrie F. Robertson, who, with her son, John are the living descendants, and was made to be placed in the old family burying ground which was deeded by the king.

At Minnaugh's.

The great July clearance sale which began at Minnaugh's last Friday and now running its unobstructed course to the grand flourishing finish is unprecedented in the valuable annals of Newberry. Minnaugh and his large number of important clerks couldn't accommodate the crowd; during the opening and succeeding day of the immense and intensely popular sale. This sale being on to clean up and close out in order to make room for the next carloads of new goods in season the present supply is going at tremendously low prices. Among the attractive features is the biggest sort of a five cent counter.

Trip Around the World.

The Civic association will conduct a personally conducted tour around the world on Tuesday, July 7, visiting the following countries:

Japan (at Mr. R. H. Wright's), Italy (at Dr. S. G. Welch's), Ireland (at Mr. C. H. Cannon's), Iceland (at Dr. J. K. Gilder's), America (at Mr. H. L. Parr's).

The price of 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for children covers the cost of the evening, including transportation and refreshments.

The starting point will be the lawn of the Central Methodist church, and tickets will be on sale there at the central station, at Mayes' Book store, and at each country to be visited. The automobiles are requested to assemble at the Central Methodist church at 6:30 o'clock.

Rally Day at Colony.

There will be an all day service at Colony church next Sunday, July 12. Preaching at 11 o'clock and after preaching we will have dinner and an intermission of two hours. In the afternoon there will be some fine addresses made by the following speakers: Rev. Fulenwider, Prof. S. J. Derrick and Dr. Geo. B. Cramer. These talks will be worth hearing. We take this opportunity to invite all the members and friends of the church. Let us make that day a home coming day. Come one and all and bring with you well filled baskets and a warm heart and let us have a great day together.
